

lth. 120 Bun go Barr. (B)

Translation of Words.

an geata = the gate Chuaigh = went ag eilt = flying
na dulleoga = the leaves na paisti = the children. sa chonchró = in the kennel fearg an domhain = very angry.
Lá goofar a bhí ann. (It was a windy day) Rothar = bicycle
Rith sé = he ran
an bóthar = the man léim = jumped freisin = also / as well fear an phoist = postman dhá litir = two letters Go raibh maith agat = Thank you an chlann = the family ag tafann = barking.

It was a windy day. The wind blew the leaves from the tree. Gordó saw the leaves flying in the air. The postman was cycling down the road. Suddenly Gordó jumped over the gate. The postman nearly fell off his bike. The postman was very angry. When Daddy saw what happened, he ran out on the road. Rossa and Neasa ran out also. I'm sorry, said Rossa. Gordó started barking. The postman gave two letters to Daddy. Thank you, said Daddy. You are welcome, said the postman. The family went in and Daddy closed the gate. Gordó went into his kennel. The children said goodbye to the postman.