

January 2020 Quiz 2

1:What is the smallest state in the USA? Rhode Island.

2:A dog is said to age as much in one year as a human does in how many? Seven.

3:Kim Jong-un is the dictator of which country?

North Korea.

4:What is the smallest county in Great Britain?

The Isle of Wight.

5:Which American marathon was disrupted in 2013 by bombings? Boston

6: What does the letter E stand for in e-mail? Electronic.

7: What A word is given to people who fish with a rod and line? Anglers.

8: What is the longest river in Italy which also is the name of one of the Telly Tubbies? The Po

9: Which city is hometown to The Beatles? Liverpool.

10:What is the chief food of most termites? Wood.

11: What do you call a person who goes to live in another country? An emigrant.

12: Pyongyang is the capital of which country? North Korea.

Capital South Korea- Seoul

13:What is the largest lake in England, Scotland and Wales?

Loch Lomond.

14:Where in your body would you find enamel? Your teeth

15: How many legs does a tripod have? 3

16: What kind of show did Charles Cruft establish in the 19th century? Dog show.

17:The Goliath[30cm long] is the largest species of which creature? The Frog.

18: In which European capital city are the Nobel Prizes awarded annually? Stockholm.

19: What name is given to the section of the army that is specifically trained to fight on foot? The infantry.

20: From what work are the stories about Aladdin and Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves taken from? Arabian Nights.

21: Which German city is associated with a round patty of minced beef served in a bun? Hamburg.

22: Name John Lennon's Japanese widow. Yoko Ono.

23: To which animal family does the skunk belong?
The weasel family.

24: Which country is linked to Italy by the St. Bernard Tunnel?
Switzerland.

25: What kind of animal was Pinocchio turned into? A donkey.

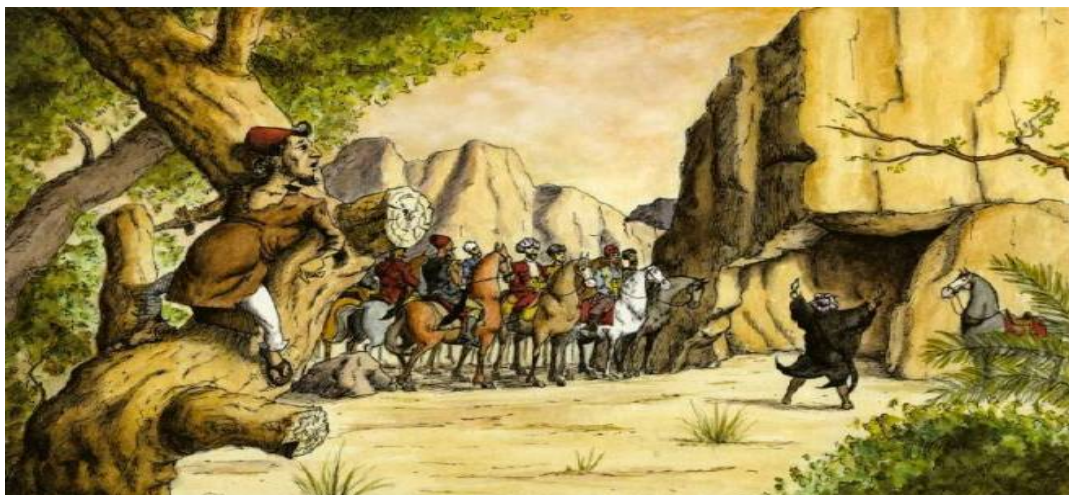

26: In all how many toes has a dog. 18. Four on each of the hind and five on each of the front.

27: Who is the patron saint of tax collectors? St. Matthew.

28: By what name is an Elk known in North America? Moose.

29: What bottle keeps hot drinks hot and cold drinks cold?
A flask

30: According to the nursery rhyme, who killed Cock Robin?
The Sparrow – with his bow and arrow!

31:

What word starting with W could be used to describe a person such as Edward Snowden, who revealed America's spying activities?
Whistleblower.

32: What would you find in a marshalling yard? Trains.

33: Name the child film star from the 1930's who sang "On The Good Ship Lollipop", starred in the film "Heidi" and whose first name was Shirley? Shirley Temple. Died 2014

34: What are the seed bearing fruits of Pine, Cedar and Fir trees called? Cones

35: Can an ostrich fly? No.

36: Which birds are kept in lofts and used for racing? Pigeons.

37: Andrew Lloyd Webber wrote a musical called "The Phantom of the ..." Opera

38: Which common flower from the daisy family has a downy seed head blown by children to tell the time? Dandelion.

39: Which is the first book of the old Testament?

The Book of Genesis.

40: How many children are in Michelle and Barack Obama's family? 2

41: Name the Lone Rangers Indian friend.
Tonto.

42: Complete the saying "A stitch in time...." Saves nine.

43:Complete the saying: “Least said.....” Soonest mended.

44:As a baby he was found among the rushes and he lead his people from captivity in Egypt. Who was he? Moses.

45: Which is the most dangerous insect? Mosquito.

46: What creature appears on the flag of Wales? A dragon.

47:What is the name of the soft pulp in the interior of bones?
Marrow.

48: Where might you find a tower called a keep?
In a castle.

49:What is a matador? A bull fighter.

50:In photography what do you call the black areas that appear white and the white areas that appear black?
The negative.

51: Where would you find an epitaph written?
On a gravestone.

52: In maths what does the word “mean” mean? It means average.

53: What is the largest island in the world? Greenland.

54: Where did Samson’s strength lie? In his hair.

55: On what river was the Salmon of Knowledge caught?
The River Boyne

56: In Irish folklore what bird is thought to be King of the Birds? The Wren.

57:How many sides has a snowflake? Six.

58: Which sea in the Middle East is so salty that nothing can live in it? The Dead Sea.

59: What kind of paper does a philatelist collect? Stamps.

60: In which continent are the Atlas Mountain?
Morocco in Africa.

