

January 2020 Quiz 3

1:How far can a dog walk into a wood? Halfway-then he is walking out again.

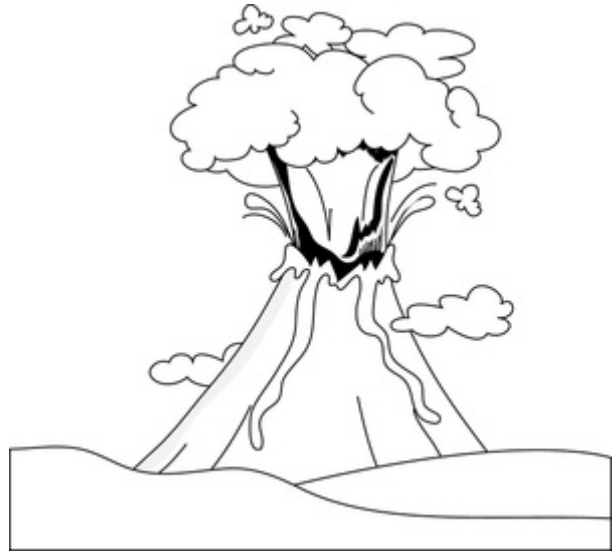

2:What is the geological name for the molten rock that comes out of an erupting volcano? Lava.

3:In which city would you find the White House?

Washington DC

4:Which country is home to Flamenco dancing? Spain.

5:Ash Wednesday is the first day of which Christian season? Lent.
Preceded by Shrove Tuesday – Pancakes!

6: Which company would you associate with the perfume or fragrance No. 5? Chanel

7: Which title goes before the name of a person who has been knighted? Sir.

8: In cards, what colour is the ace of Spades? Black.

9:Who created the fictional character “Tracey Beaker”?
Jacqueline Wilson.

10: Who or what would somebody write about in an autobiography?

They would write about themselves.

11:What is a marmoset?

A kind of monkey. Very small.

12: Of which plant is a four leaved specimen considered lucky? Clover

13:Nashville, Tennessee, is the home of which kind of music? Country and Western.

14:What do you call a device for seeing through a brick wall? A window.

15: Apart from Britain, there is only one other country in Europe where you must drive on the left side of the road. Name it.
Ireland.

16: In the night sky what can be full, half or new? The Moon

17: How many players are there on a Gaelic football hurling team? Fifteen.

18: What kind of fish is an alewife? A herring.

19: What is a Springbok? An antelope found in South Africa.

20: Which part of a book is also the name of a finger? Index.

21: What name is given to the stand upon which an artist rests his painting? The easel.

22: What distance is a modern marathon? 42.195Km

23: Which black and white bear lives on a diet mainly of bamboo? Panda.

24: What is a Yellowhammer? A kind of bird.

25: To which part of the body does “nasal” refer?
The nose.

26: What name is given to the liquid inside a coconut? Milk.

27: Is Los Angeles situated on the east or west coast of America?
West coast.

28: Which profession would be likely to use a rolling pin? Baker.

29: DIY is a hobby for grown ups. What is DIY? Do It Yourself.

30: What is a mastiff? A kind of dog-very large.

31: What kind of flying aircraft has no engine? A Glider.

32: In which USA state would you find the city of Dallas? Texas.

33: Who sat in the corner according to the nursery rhyme?

Little Jack Horner.

34: On which continent is the country South Korea? Asia

35: Which country is sometimes referred to as “Uncle Sam” ?
USA.

36: Who was Samson’s wife? Delilah.

37: Which group released an album called “Sgt Pepper’s Lonely Hearts Club Band”? The Beatles

38: Valencia island is located off the coast of which county? Kerry

39: What is an Ibex? A mountain goat.

40: How many petals has a primrose? 5

41: Who is the patron saint of Wales? St. David.

42: What is the Friday before Easter Sunday called? Good Friday.

43: The decathlon is an athletic contest made up of how many events? 10

44: What saint do you associate with a cross made out of rushes?
St. Brigid.

45: An admiral is a high ranking officer in which force?
The Navy.

46: What would you usually do with an artichoke? Eat it.

47: Name Harry Potter's parents who were murdered by Voldemort. James and Lily.

48: Harry Potter's owl is called? Hedwig.

49: In which county is there an area known as the Decies?
Waterford.

50: If you were travelling on an aeroplane flight whose identification initials were EI, which airline would you be flying on? Aer Lingus.

51: The dauphin was the title given to the eldest son of the king of which European country? France.

52: Name the South African surgeon who performed the first heart transplant in 1967. Christian Barnard

53: In Asia, the poppy is grown as the source of which drug?
Opium.

54: Who is the elder of the Mario brothers – Luigi or Mario?
Mario

55: From which language does the word restaurant come from?
French.

56: Spell RESTAURANT.

57: What is the modern name for Persia? Iran.

58: Which chemical element is represented by the letters Zn?
Zinc.

Gold Au Silver Ag Iron Fe Mercury Hg

59: In which country is The Wall Street Journal published?
America.

60: Which musical note follows “lah” ? Tee
Do-Ray-Me-Fay-So-Lat-Tee-Do